

Student Counselling Responsibilities

The counselling policy of the department is developed not only to provide guidance about educational aspects but also on personal, social, and other aspects of students. For the counselling function faculty members are nominated by the chairperson listed below. Each counsellor communicates the location of his/her office and counseling hours to the students during the first theory session. The counseling hours are also communicated to the students by displaying on faculty offices. Students are always welcome to discuss their personal issues and problems with the concerned counsellor.
